Paris, January 21.

A Courier arrived here ſome Days ago from the Prince of Rohan, with Advice that the Exchange of the two Princeſſes was made the 9th Inſtant upon the Frontiers of Spain, and that they were both in perfect Health. The Infanta will arrive at Paris the 2d or 3d of March; the Number of the Workmen who are employed at the Old Louvre in fitting up the Apartments for that Princeſs and her Retinue, is increaſed. When Mademoiſelle de Montpenſier paſſed through Bayonne, ſhe was received there with great Magnificence by the Queen Dowager of Spain; and 'tis ſaid that the Preſents that Princeſs made to Mademoiſelle and to the Ladies that accompanied her, amount to the Value of 6 or 700000 Livres. The Abbot Tanſin has ſent by an Expreſs the Pope's Diſpenſation for the Concluſion of Mademoiſelle de Montpenſier's Marriage with the Prince of Aſturias. M. de Penterrider the Emperour's Miniſter here having received Orders from his Court to repair to Cambray, had on the 16th Inſtant a private Audience of the King, to take his Leave of his Majeſty, and will ſet out the beginning of next Month. Don Louis d'Acunha the King of Portugal's Ambaſſadour here, will follow him ſhortly to the Congreſs. The Duke d'Oſſuna's Departure for Spain is fixed to the 24th or 25th Inſtant. The Count de Tavannes is named by the King Commander of Burgundy, and he will ſet out next Week for Dijon, in order to accommodate a Diſpute which has lately ariſen between the Parliament and the Biſhop of Langres. The Duke of Chartres is out of Danger, his Fever having ceaſed ſince the 16th Inſtant. He has however a very violent Cold upon him, which obliges him to keep his Apartment. The following Extract of the Advices relating to the Plague received by the Court to the 13th of January, has been communicated to the foreign Miniſters.

The Viſcount de Beaune, by his Letter of the 4th of January to M. de la Deveze, had commanded him to make a ſecond Example of the Brother of the Peaſant of Prade lately executed; becauſe it appeared they had trafficked together in the Gevaudan. M. d'Iverney Brigadier, in his of the 30th of November, ſays, that only Salindres in the open Country had been infected, that but 12 Perſons had died in it, and that none were then ſick there. At Blattiry two had died ſuddenly, and it was believed they had the Plague. At Bigardie one had died after three Days Illneſs, but it was believed to be of a Pleuriſy; however that Village it blocked up. Of 22 Inhabitants of the Village of Caila, but four were living; but by the Care of the Officer commanding there, the Diſtemper had not ſpread further from thence. The Village of Sally is in a bad Condition. Mouſſac is in perfect Health. Alais grows ſtill better. The Phyſicians judge the Diſtemper is in its Decline, becauſe ſeveral Perſons upon whom Tumours and Sores had appeared, had no Fever with them but only for two Days, and then grew well. M. de la Deveze writes the 23d of December, that Mende had begun Quarantain, though one or two a Day fell ill there. Marvejols began Quarantain the 16th, and for ſix Days after but two had died there. The Inhabitant of la Canourgue who had been at Banaſſac, was dead; the Diſtemper had not ceaſed at Banaſſac. A Burier of the Dead of Marvejols, and one who had been put under Quarantain at la Canourgue and at Tremoulis, being convicted of having carried in the Night Cloaths of infected Perſons from one Place to another, had been ſhot dead. The Duke de Roquelaure in his of the 2d of January, ſays, that he hoped more and more the Diſtemper would ceaſe in the Gevaudan before the next Spring. Marvejols is looked upon to be intirely freed from it. La Canourgue and Banaſſac were diſinfecting, none had newly fallen ſick there; at Mende ſtill one dies now and then. M. Gervaſſy and Jenin Phyſicians at Mende write the 25th of December, that in ſix Days there had died at the Infirmaries only one Child; 45 ſick remained in thoſe Infirmaries, who, two or three excepted, were in a fair way of Recovery: They add, that the whole Number of dead there to that time was 820, which would be reduced to 400 if the old People and Infants (whom their Age rendred incapable of receiving Benefit by Medicines) were left out. M. Bernard the commanding Officer at Alais, in his of the 22d and 27th of December, writes, that 200 Perſons in all had died there, of whom 98 in November, and but 50 in December. There were then remaining 31 ſick in the Suburbs, and 29 recovering, with 290 under Quarantain. From the 22d to the 27th not one had died in the Suburbs, but four had newly fallen ill there. M. le Bret in his of the 25th of December writes, that Alauch continues in the ſame Condition, on the 24th one fell ſick there; and three were diſcovered ſick in ſeveral Places of the Diſtrict of Ollioules, but it was not yet certain it was of the Contagion; it was hoped this would have no ill Conſequence, as la Seyne, and ſome other Places had eſcaped without any. M. Langier Lieutenant Collonel at Lorgues, in his of the 26th of December, writes, that during two Months none had died at Garçon St. Anaſtaſe, Forcalquieret, la Soux du Puget, and Neoules, and that all thoſe Places were perfuming. At Beſſe not one had died in 15 Days. At Pignan one Soldier of the Line had died, but none elſe. The Conſuls of Arles, in a Letter of the 27th of December, ſend a Declaration in form, affirming their Town and its Territory to be in perfect Health; which Declaration is dated the 18th of December, which was the laſt Day of their Quarantain. M. Dupont the commanding Officer at Toulon, writes the 27th of December, that that Town continues in good Health, without any Relapſe: But it is not quite ſo well with the Neighbourhood, where ſome Sparks of the Diſtemper have broke out. M. d'Orſay writes the 1ſt of January, that the Diſtemper makes no great Progreſs at Orange; no more than 124 Perſons have died there; the Diſtemper which had got into ſome Farms in its Territory, had intirely ceaſed. Vizan, a Place in the Comtat on this Side of the Line, within a League of Tullette, is blocked up by Order of M. de Belrieu; ſome Inhabitants there had died of the Pleuriſy, but it was judged there was nothing more to be feared. Avignon ſtill loſes many of its People, the Diſtemper having raged afreſh there ſince the 15th of December. Sarrians has loſt 30 Perſons ſince it was infected. Mazan is ſuſpected, becauſe a Man lately died there ſuddenly either of a Tumour or a Sore. M. de Vedrille in his of the 27th and 31ſt of December, ſends two Letters from Orange and Avignon of the 24th and 27th: In ſix Days only one Child of five or ſix Years old had died at Orange, and that without any outward Marks of Contagion. For a Month before, none had newly fallen ill in the neighbouring Country; and there were none but recovering Perſons in the Infirmaries. Avignon loſt on the 15th 40 Perſons; it was believed however to be growing better ſince that Time: It is very difficult to get certain Accounts from thence.
